3. Unaccompanied Baggage

Personal belongings that you send to the United States separately are called unaccompanied baggage. Choose the method (via mail, sea, or air), which suits you best. Since much will depend on the size, weight and content of what you will send, contact the following couriers for details about baggage and shipping:

(a) Via Post Office

Practical Guide for International Students – Information on all postal methods, and point and speak guides: http://www.post.japanpost.jp/int/ems/ryugaku/intl_student/index_en.html

This is one of the best ways to send your personal belongings to the U.S. if you do not have a large quantity to send. Pack the things you want to send in a cardboard box, and take the open box to the post office. Wrap books, magazines and other printed matter and send them separately as printed matter. Mail will be delivered to your address in the United States. Be sure to KEEP RECORDS of mail receipts until after you receive your package, especially shipping #s etc. This is important if you need to track your package.

Shipping types for international mail (incl. approx. delivery time):

Express Mail Service (EMS): Top priority International mail service. EMS packages are delivered within approximately 2-4 days to addressees all over the world. Depending on the size and weight, the rate may be cheaper than airmail.

Airmail: Fees are relatively high since packages are sent by air. Delivery will be made within approximately 3-6 days.

Economy Air (SAL): This is a service where international mail is handled as surface mail in both Japan and the destination country and as airmail between the two countries. The service is faster than surface mail while the cost is lower than airmail.

Surface Mail: Sent as surface mail. The rates are reasonable but delivery takes 1-3 months.

Note: Surface mail is likely to be handled roughly and sometimes might arrive damaged.
