

DIRECTIONS FROM NARITA AIRPORT TO ICU

The fastest and most direct way is to take the JR Narita Express (N'EX) from Narita airport to Tokyo. Both Terminal 1 and 2 have JR stations directly connected from the arrival lobbies. N'EX runs every 30 minutes.

Please purchase tickets to JR Musashisakai Station at Narita Airport JR Line Ticket Counters.

Approx. Fee: 3,500-4,000 yen
Approx. Time: 2.5 hours

JR Narita Airport Station

If you are at Terminal 1, N'EX Narita Airport Terminal 1 is the closest station for you. If you flew in with United, Singapore or Delta Airlines, it is most likely that you are at Terminal 1.

2 min.

JR Airport Terminal 2・3 Station

About
55 min.

Even though there is a free shuttle service between 1st and the 2nd Terminals of Narita Airport, you do not need to take one. Every N'EX stops at both “Narita Airport Terminal 1” and “Airport Terminal 2・3”. Examples of the airlines arriving at Terminal 2 are China, American and Japan Airlines.

JR Tokyo Station (東京駅)

About
40 min.

Since Tokyo Station is the starting station for Chuo Line, it is strongly recommended that you transfer at this station. Because of this, the train is less crowded (really!!) After getting off the N'EX at Tokyo Station, go up the stairs and look for platforms 1 and 2. It's easier to find Chuo Line when you look for the color orange, which is the line color for Chuo Line(中央線).

Take ONLY “Rapid(快速)” trains since others won't stop at Musashisakai Station.

From Musashisakai station to Citytel: At Musashi-sakai station, go downstairs to the ground level and follow the signs for the SOUTH EXIT. You'll either see "Newdays", a convenience store, on your left and/or "Emio", a food market complex on your right hand side. Turn right at "Emio" and go straight along with "Emio" on your right. Within a minute or so, you'll see Citytel Hotel on your left. The picture on the left below shows the street entrance to the Hotel.
