

DIRECTIONS FROM NARITA AIRPORT TO CITYTEL, MUSASHISAKAI

The fastest and most direct way is to take the JR Narita Express (N'EX) to get to Tokyo from Narita Airport. Both Terminal 1 and 2 have JR stations directly connected from the arrival lobbies. N'EX runs every 30 minutes.

Please purchase tickets to JR Musashisakai Station at Narita Airport JR Line Ticket Counters.

Please note that the last Narita Express leaves at 21:44pm, so if your flight arrives after 7pm, it might be better to consider booking a hotel in the Narita area.

Train Fee: 3,500-4,000 yen
Approx. Time: 2.5 hours

(Taxis from Narita can be extremely expensive.)

JR Narita Airport Station

If you are at Terminal 1, N'EXs "Narita Airport Station" is the closest station for you. For example, if you flew in with United, Singapore or Delta Airlines, it is most likely that you are at Terminal 1.

::See below link to find the terminal your airline uses

Approx. 7 min.

JR Airport Terminal 2 Station

Approx.
65 min.

Even though there is a free shuttle service between 1st and the 2nd Terminals of Narita Airport, you do not need to worry about taking one. Every N'EX stops at both "Narita Airport Station" and "Airport Terminal 2 Station". Examples of the airlines arrive at Terminal 2 are China, American and Japan Airlines.

JR Tokyo Station (東京駅)

Approx.
40 min.

Since Tokyo Station is the starting station for Chuo Line, it is strongly recommended that you transfer at this station. Because of this, the train is less crowded (really!!)

After getting off the N'EX at Tokyo Station, go up the stairs and look for platforms 1 and 2. It's easier to find Chuo Line when you look for the orange signs, the color for Chuo Line(中央線). Don't get confused with the Tokaido line.

Take ONLY "Rapid(快速)" trains since other trains won't stop at Musashisakai Station.

At Musashi-sakai station, go downstairs to the ground level and follow the signs for the SOUTH EXIT. You'll either see "Newdays", a convenience store, on your left or "Emio", a food market complex on your right hand side. Turn right at "Emio", and go straight along with "Emio" on your right.

On your left there will be an open space where kids like to play. Within a minute or so, you'll see Citytel Hotel on your left. The picture on the left below shows the street entrance to the hotel.
